

walkwalkwalk: an archaeology of the familiar and the forgotten – is a live art project of Gail Burton, Serena Korda and Clare Qualmann

Notes from the podcast interview by Andrew Stuck: April 2008 on <http://talkingwalking.net>

walkwalkwalk is a participatory project with a walk at its core – the three artists talk about the night walks they have organised since 2005, following a set route through the East End of London. You can find out more about them from their blog: <http://www.walkwalkwalk.org.uk/toplevelpages/about.html>

You can read about their night walks and other walking events here: <http://www.walkwalkwalk.org.uk/toplevelpages/walks%26events.html>

walkwalkwalk were commissioned by Transition Gallery as part of E8: The Heart of the Hackney in 2007:

http://www.transitiongallery.co.uk/htmlpages/e8/e8_pr.htm

<http://www.transitiongallery.co.uk/htmlpages/e8/walkwalkwalk.htm>

<http://www.walkwalkwalk.org.uk/2ndlevelpages/ChipShopTourE8.html>

For E8: The Heart of Hackney, walkwalkwalk devised a Chip Shop Tour – further details including an opportunity of purchasing a chip shop wrapper can be found here: <http://chipwalk.blogspot.com/>

Faulkner's Chip Shop is at 424-426 Kingsland Road, London, E8 4AA

walkwalkwalk have been commissioned by Spacex Gallery to produce a project in Exeter and have recently organized a night walk and other participatory events - find out more here:

<http://www.walkwalkwalk.org.uk/2ndlevelpages/ExeterApril2008.html>

An exhibition of their work will remain at Exeter Central Station until 1 September, 2008.