

Des de Moor:

Des is Senior Everyday Walking Officer at The Ramblers based at their London HQ at 89 Albert Embankment, in Vauxhall. Des is a journalist in the drinks industry, and is a regular contributor to the Campaign for Real Ale's BEER magazine and to Beers of the World magazine. He is also a singer, songwriter and performer and former club promoter.

<http://www.desdemoor.com/>

Interviewed by Andrew Stuck who accompanied Des on his walk to work from New Cross to Vauxhall on a winter's morning in December 2008.

Published on <http://talkingwalking.net>

Des worked as an information officer at the Ramblers' Association – a charity that promotes walking: <http://www.ramblers.org.uk/aboutus/our-work.htm>

Des was one of the creators of the Get Walking Keep Walking project that is funded by the BIG Lottery: <http://www.ramblers.org.uk/gwkw/>

European Ramblers Association: <http://www.era-ewv-ferp.org/>

The Fédération Française de la Randonnée Pédestre (FFRP) is the organization behind the France's long distance footpaths - les sentiers de grande randonnée which exist all over the country.

<http://www.ffrandonnee.fr> (in French).

Legible London is a wayfinding initiative from Transport for London (TFL):

<http://www.tfl.gov.uk/microsites/legible-london/default.aspx>

You can read some of Des' views on beer here: http://www.beers-of-the-world.com/magazine/author/des_de_moor.html

Campaign for Real Ale: <http://www.camra.org.uk/>

You can follow an approximation of the route that Des takes every morning to work here (From the Walkit.com website):

http://www.walkit.com/walk/?city=london&from=New+Cross&fuid=38592_1_425553&to=SE1+7TW&tuid=405695_436807&rta=old&direct=1

Parks mentioned in the interview:

Burgess Park:

<http://www.southwark.gov.uk/yourservices/parkssection/azparks/burgesspark.html>

Kennington Park:

<http://www.lambeth.gov.uk/Services/Environment/ParksGreenSpaces/Parks/KenningtonPark.htm>

Des's favourite walks include:

Downriver from Vauxhall on the Thames path:

<http://www.walklondon.org.uk/route.asp?R=6>

The Capital Ring: <http://www.walklondon.org.uk/route.asp?R=1>